

Hi Maya,

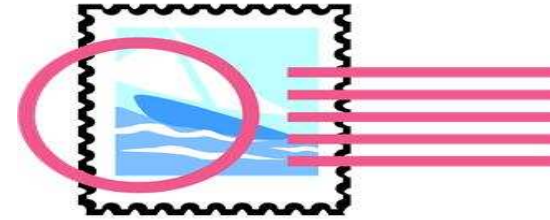

I'm writing to you from the wonderful Easter Island! No, not where the Easter bunny lives, I'm in the middle of the Pacific Ocean about.. 4000 km away from Chile. Yes, the country, not the food..

The second I look at the island, I feel small. Stop laughing! I mean, 600 giant statues were built here, and some of them are about 13 metres high. I'm pretty sure you haven't grown that tall, unless you've had a massive growth spurt and... back to the cool statues. Some of these things weigh 27 tonnes, and all of them are about 2000 years old! I'm not saying it reminded of you, but.. I should really stop writing before I say anything else that might offend you.

See you soon,

Melrick A

P.S. I really didn't mean to offend you. Really. MA
